ATTORNEY GENERALS OFFICE COLUMBIA

October 7, 2014

Silent Witness Program

11:00 a.m. South Steps South Carolina State House Grounds

- A solemn ceremony to remember those who died as a result of domestic violence during 2013
 - During this ceremony, wooden silhouettes represent the women and men who have died due to domestic violence in South Carolina during the previous year. The names of each victim and the circumstances of their death will be read aloud. As each name is read, volunteers or family members of the victim carry the silhouette and take a place on the State House steps. The event is open to the public.

A display featuring t-shirts designed by domestic violence survivors, at the Beaufort, Hampton and Jasper County libraries during all of October.

Wedding Gown Project,

A display featuring wedding dresses bearing witness to the fact that while many walk into marriage full of hope, the reality of domestic violence shatters their innocence. The dresses are adorned with the names of those who have died at the hands of their partners in South Carolina from 2011-2013. These will be displayed in Hampton, Colleton and Jasper county courthouses during all of October.

A Light in the Window

Businesses and community members in Hampton have agreed to display a purple candle in their front windows throughout the month of October to draw awareness to domestic violence in their community. Hampton County, all of October iFuerza!

The Columbia Museum of Art and SCCADVASA teamed up to present this exhibition; located in the Community Gallery. iFuerza! confronts Domestic Violence through art.

The artwork in iFuerza! is based on a short story by Robert Chambers, and includes a narrative set of 12 graphic novel-style panels by local Hispanic artists. SCCADVASA created brochures specifically for this event, which are stationed near the artwork for those that may need support and advocacy-based services.
